

Baldwin Represents Best To Be Found In Islands of Hawaii

To the Editor:

By the passing away of our beloved Prince Kuhio, Hawaii truly lost a noble and true patriot—one, who will always be in the hearts of the people of Hawaii. But in Senator Harry A. Baldwin the people of Hawaii have found another prince. Not that he is linked with the Royal Hawaiian family by blood lines, but by his generous personality—and the manner in which he serves the people as a public servant in true Hawaiian style. Being a son of dear Hawaii, Mr. Baldwin is a true Hawaiian—yes, more of a Hawaiian than a haole, the only difference being in the color of his skin—not only because Hawaii is the land of his birth, but because of his unselfishness, his high ideals, his love to serve his people, his love for them, and for the keen interest which he takes in the welfare of the people of Hawaii.

For generations, the Baldwin family has worked for the Hawaiians and for the best interests of this territory. They have maintained scores of Hawaiians and others who were in the last stages of life. The Baldwin Home for the old on Maui will point an instance among the hundreds, of what the Baldwin family has done to prolong the life of the helpless in comfort. Senator Baldwin is at the head of this noble family now, and is carrying forward the principles laid down by his great ancestors. It is an instinct with that family to do a lot of good things and if Mr. Baldwin is capable of doing these great things out of his free and kind generosity, he is even much more capable of doing other greater things, namely, that of representative of his people in congress and carrying forward the interests of this territory to a successful termination.

Now comes Mr. Baldwin before us with even a deeper interest in our welfare for the future. He is willing to forsake a home, his family, his friends, his interests and all his vast estates at a great sacrifice to serve the common cause of the people of Hawaii as their servant and this sacrifice is worthy of consideration and deep gratitude.

The Baldwins have made the Maui of today. Without the Baldwins, Maui would have been somewhat of a desert isle inhabited by a sparse population of nomadic peoples. And Mr. Baldwin as head of the Baldwin family is willing to help make all the other islands another New Maui.

His election lies in the hands of the Hawaiians. Senator Baldwin is a true Hawaiian and not a haole. And the Hawaiians must realize that they have another prince in Baldwin who will always endeavor to work for the best of their interests. His election is for our mutual benefit and best interests and it is of vital importance that we elect him as our Delegate to Congress.

Those that are acquainted with Mr. Baldwin personally feel deep gratitude and pride in having him chosen to lead them. With this in view, I hope the citizens and voters of this territory will realize what it means to have a good man represent them in congress.

Wishing Mr. Baldwin the greatest of success on the 25th of March.

I am,

Yours very truly,
MANUEL A. DEAS, JR.

Moscow Takes Place As Wide Open City

MOSCOW, Jan. 10 — (Associated Press Mail)—This city has become a wide open town for the first time in its modern history. It is open for business, for thefts, for hold-ups, for fun, for disease and disaster, for speculation, for drinking, for any and all things man, or woman, may devise.

The old timers of the staid pre-war regime can't recognize anything but the snow. It used to be, before the war, a sort of country, family town, as compared to the gayer skylarkings of St. Petersburg.

During the revolutions, it lost this friendly aspect of quiet and, as the Soviet settled down here, it became strictly moral and severe, with only the grand opera to lighten the load of propaganda and thousands of orders on how to live and prosper and be happy, notwithstanding closed shops, lack of bread and medicine and clothes.

A Russian Rip Van Winkle, who had slept during the past three years, wouldn't know the town these nights, church bells ring out for prayers, Communists and bourgeoisie, peasants and princesses are all scrambling for more money that they may not fall into the abyss of famine. Cabmen are fighting for higher rates, grain dealers for more rubles per bushel, bakers for more per pound, candy and cookery shops are blooming out on every corner, wine and vodka are sold in millinery shops and the 80 policemen of the town have long since quit bothering with footpads.

The lid is off.

GARDEN HINTS

(By M. A. DEAS, U. S. E. S.)

The spring planting season is at hand. The call of the great outdoors is everywhere. Follow the impulse and get busy. Get out the measures and the garden line and stakes. Lay off a garden plot or improve on the one already started. Put the spading fork in good and deep and then rake the ground over till it is nice and fine.

For the temporary garden confine your plantings to quick maturing seeds and plants comprising lettuce, cabbage, green onions, cauliflower, radishes, beets, carrots, turnip, and beans. I would use string beans, the Kentucky Wonder Wax, Lazy Wife or Horticultural Pole.

For the home garden we plan more permanent things, we look into the future. We want things that it requires two or three years to bring into a producing state and then continue to produce for a number of years. In this group are Lima beans, asparagus, rhubarb, artichokes (Jerusalem artichokes) berries and papayas.

The sides or boundaries are the preferred location for these things. Plant them as soon as possible. Then in beds between have your quick maturing vegetables. Plant cucumbers (Klondike or white spine) melons and cayotes. If there is any doubt as to your particular location it is just as well that you plant the harder vegetables during February. These varieties are beets, carrots, radishes, turnips, lettuce, green onions, peas, cabbage, cauliflower, hohlrabi and spinach. It is now time to start in boxes tomatoes, peppers and egg plants for setting out later. See that the growing stuff is thinned out and hoed to allow proper development. Keep up cultivation. Stir up the dirt constantly but be careful not to harm the roots.
